THE PROPERTY

Built to a high specification in 2020 by Project 26 homes, this attractive family home is set in an enviable location within this exclusive close of just 9 properties. This lovely house features a stunning kitchen/family room with doors out to the rear garden and fitted in an attractive Shaker style with Natural Quartz worktops, fully integrated Bosch appliances and soft closed doors and drawers. The ground floor has underfloor heating with mostly Amtico flooring and Oak cottage style doors with brushed metal handles. Upstairs the bathroom and shower room are again finished to a high standard with wet room style shower and modern Roca Nexo sanitaryware with coordinated wall and floor tiling. There are LED spotlights to most rooms with hardwired smoke, heat and CO2 alarms and the property is fitted with Solar photovoltaic roof panels to provide savings on your electricity bills.

THE GROUNDS

At the front there is a car port and driveway parking. Side access with gate leads to the rear which has been landscaped for ease of maintenance and features Indian sandstone paved paths and patios. The boundaries are clearly defined by timber panel fencing with mature trees to the rear providing screening and privacy.

SITUATION

The property lies close to the village centre and is well-placed for all the areas many facilities. Liphook itself offers a good range of shopping, educational and leisure amenities, including a Sainsburys supermarket, schools for all age groups including the highly regarded Bohunt Academy and Sixth Form and various sporting clubs. Liphook mainline station provides services on the London Waterloo to Portsmouth line, whilst the A3 can be accessed at nearby Griggs Green. Nearby is The South Downs National Park with walks along the Shipwrights Way and up to Weavers Down very close. There is a fine selection of pubs and restaurants as well the recently opened Living Room Cinema and golf, Spa & gym at the nearby Old Thorns Hotel and Country Club.
