THE PROPERTY

Set back behind a walled front garden and located in the picturesque and historic village of Bramshott, near Liphook, this delightful detached bungalow offers a rare opportunity to own a versatile home in a sought-after semi rural setting. With its mid-20th-century origins and 1,000 sq ft of accommodation the property presents exciting potential for a wide range of buyers. This chain free property Set within a ¼ acre plot, the home features two well-proportioned double bedrooms, two reception rooms, a kitchen and a bathroom. The bungalow offers a comfortable and manageable space with scope to modernise or extend (subject to any necessary permissions). Whether you're looking to downsize into a single-storey dwelling, create your ideal home, or invest in a property with future potential, this bungalow is ready to inspire.

THE GROUNDS

The property sits within a generous $\frac{1}{4}$ acre plot, offering both front and rear gardens that enhance its charm and provide plenty of outdoor space to enjoy. At the front, a low brick wall with an inviting central pathway creates a welcoming entrance, flanked by a neatly maintained lawn. To the rear, the substantial garden offers a mix of lawn and planting areas, providing an ideal space for gardening enthusiasts, families, or anyone seeking a peaceful outdoor retreat. There's ample room for entertaining, relaxing, or even planning future extensions or additions (subject to permissions). The rear garden also benefits from vehicular access via an adjoining lane, leading to a discreet parking area.

SITUATION

The property enjoys a wonderful location in the centre of the picturesque village of Bramshott which lies just north of the A3 interchange and within one and a half miles of Liphook village centre. It is renowned for its many attractive cottages and the historic St Marys Church, whilst nearby Liphook itself provides an excellent range of facilities which include a large Sainsbury's supermarket, many independent shops, The Living Room Cinema and many leisure and recreational facilities. There are many miles of good walks nearby, many of which are in National Trust owned land or The South Downs National Park. There is also a fine selection of restaurants and pubs in the area, whilst the mainline railway station at Liphook offers services to London and Portsmouth.
