This chalet bungalow is entering the market for the first time since it was originally built 100 years ago. It has spacious and flexible accommodation, is situated in its own large level grounds of 0.23 acres and is within a short walk of the local facilities and countryside.

THE PROPERTY

The property is an established and attractive chalet bungalow which offers spacious and flexible accommodation. There's an entrance porch leading to the hallway which gives access to the living room which has patio doors to the sun terrace and rear garden. There is open plan accommodation, the dining room has a deep storage cupboard housing the boiler and hot water tank. The well equipped kitchen/breakfast room overlook the garden. A key feature are the two double bedrooms on the ground floor which both have extensive fitted wardrobe cupboards. There is a re-fitted shower room. The first floor offers two large double bedrooms one of which has fitted wardrobes.

THE GROUNDS

The Gardens are an undoubted feature, the front garden is laid to lawn and enclosed by established walling and there is parking for numerous cars. The substantial rear garden boasts a large level lawn along with fruit trees. There are a number of outbuildings, one of which incorporates utility facilities. The rear garden enjoys a southerly aspect and there is potential to provide vehicle access via the side adjoining lane.

SITUATION

The property is situated in the centre of Lindford, which offers a convenience store and post office and the highly regarded Royal Exchange pub and restaurant. Nearby Liphook and Grayshott, which are both about four miles away provide more comprehensive shopping facilities, whilst Liphook boasts well regarded schools for all age groups, access to the A3 and mainline station serving the London Waterloo to Portsmouth line. The surrounding area is noted for its' natural beauty, with many well-known attractions, such as the Devils punchbowl, Hindhead commons and Frensham Ponds being just a short drive away.
