THE PROPERTY

Versatility is the key feature of this attractive and individual modern home, being sold with the added convenience of having no onward chain. With the rear of the house facing south, natural light fills the principal ground floor rooms and garden. The impressive L-shaped living/dining room has both front and rear aspects, a feature fireplace with gas fire, sliding doors to the garden and a useful bay window that could be used as a study area. Underneath the carpet in this room is smart and practical laminate wooden flooring. The welcoming reception hall has 2 separate storage areas off it, as well as the cloak/shower room. The sleek tiled floor continues through into the kitchen/breakfast room, which has a good range of fitted appliances and a dedicated breakfast bar. There is also the added benefit of underfloor heating on the ground floor. Upstairs are three well balanced bedrooms, complemented by the family bathroom. There are both Velux and traditional windows and a large eaves storage area.

THE GROUNDS

Outside, the property benefits from a shingled front garden behind a low level wall and decorative railings. To the side is a driveway with parking for one car. A paved path leads to covered front entrance porch. To the rear, designed for low maintenance, is a paved garden which enjoys a lovely sunny Southerly aspect and has a timber pergola and hose tap.
